The European première took place in Figueres on 19 November 2015, Dalí's birthtown and where the headquarters of the Dalí Foundation are located. The documentary was presented to AVICOM-FIAMP, the International Festival of Audiovisual and Multimedia on Heritage and Museums organised by the audiovisual section of ICOM, where it won the Golden Prize in the category of Long Films. The argument was that: "the documentary is not only a virtual visit to the Dalí museum but it also shows contents that can hardly be found in a single support". It was also presented at the Beirut Art Film Festival, Lebanon.
